

SIAS-AUAP STUDENT MOBILITY PROGRAMME 2014 (GLOBAL LEADERSHIP SUMMER CAMP 2014)

Goal:

The SIAS--AUAP Global Leadership Camp is an intensive educational experience for college students from the Membership Universities of AUAP. The aim is to enhance student's understanding of the role of a global leader and to introduce the tools that rising global business leaders need to engage their community. The camp will include lectures on the topics of International Business, Culture and much more.

Mission:

Our mission is to inspire the next generation of global leaders to realize their potential to transform the world and their role in it. We will create a learning environment that encourages exploration, discussion, debate and personal growth.

We hope to cultivate a global perspective and open-mindedness in the students that will ultimately inspire them to become great leaders, global thinkers and seek positive change in their own home countries.

Students will explore cultural differences, gain firsthand exposure to the challenges of international businesses, build confidence and enhance decision-making skills in an atmosphere of mutual respect and that will challenge them to broaden their world view.

Funding:

The Host School--Sias International University will cover housing 、 food expenses and local transportation incurred during the camp. International travel expenses must be paid by the students. All participants are expected to actively participate in all camp activities.

Selection:

Sias International University will select 50 students from the membership Universities of AUAP. Students interested in the camp should fill out the registration form below and attach the essays. Registration forms and essays will be reviewed by the AUAP Camp committee and those selected will be notified by the

May 5th, 2014. Participants will be provided with a camp agenda at that time.
