AIUB Donates Twelve Lakh Taka to Chief Adviser's Relief and Welfare Fund for Flood Victims

19 September 2024, Thursday

In a compassionate response to the recent devastating floods, American International University-Bangladesh (AIUB) has generously contributed twelve lakh taka to the Chief Adviser's Relief and Welfare Fund for flood victims. This donation represents a united effort by the AIUB community, with funds collected through a voluntary contribution of one day's salary from the University's management, faculty, officers, and staff.

Prof. Dr. Saiful Islam, Vice Chancellor of AIUB, presented the cheque to Mr. Faruk E Azam, Bir Protik, Honorable Adviser to the Ministry of Disaster Management and Relief, during a ceremony at his office. The donation aims to support immediate relief and recovery efforts, providing much-needed assistance to those affected by the flooding.

AIUB remains committed to national relief efforts, reaffirming its dedication to supporting the well-being of communities across Bangladesh.

Students of AIUB: Standing with the Flood-Affected People

19 September 2024, Thursday

In response to the devastating floods that recently struck the southeastern region of Bangladesh, numerous groups of students from AIUB have exemplified their commitment to humanitarian needs and social responsibility through various relief and rescue efforts throughout several affected areas like Chagolnaiya, Porshuram, Shonagazi, Modhupur, Mohipal, Shenbag, Mohipur, Hajigonj, Alipur, Rajgonj, Boshikpur, Shompara, Dottopara, etc. Moved by the plight of those affected, they organized fundraising campaigns, arranged care packages of necessities, and volunteered to brave the rising water levels to distribute relief and even assist the on-site locals, army, and navy personnel with their rescue missions in many remote areas of the region. Their combined efforts enabled the distribution of essential food and medical supplies to over 1200 families struggling with the flood's aftermath. Many groups of students were able to rescue several locals stranded in a flood-affected region.

Advisor of the Department of Law Represents AIUB at the 2024 Global Law Deans' Forum

26 September 2024, Thursday

Professor Dr. Taslima Monsoor, Advisor of the Department of Law at AIUB, recently participated in the prestigious 2024 Global Law Deans' Forum and Annual Meeting of the International Association of Law Schools, held at the University of Lausanne, Faculty of Law, from September 12-13, 2024, in Switzerland. On September 12, she contributed to two key sessions. In 'Recent Developments in the Integration of Artificial Intelligence in Legal Education,' she raised concerns about the potential risks AI poses to human creativity and innovation. In 'Navigating External Influences,' she drew parallels between student activism in Bangladesh and its pivotal role in the country's independence movement. The day ended with a formal dinner at Restaurant Le Débarcadère. On September 13, in a session on 'Teaching Critical Issues for the Future Climate Change,' moderated by Sanjeevi Shanthakumar, Vice-Chancellor of Gujarat National Law University, Professor Monsoor stressed the importance of interdisciplinary studies.
