Dhaka, Bangladesh
Public Affairs Section*

Dear Sir / Madam,

The American Center at U.S. Embassy Dhaka is pleased to announce this year's Fulbright Foreign Student Program, which provides several grants for a fully-funded master's degree in the United States. Preferred candidates include younger faculty from Bangladeshi universities, junior to mid-level employees of research organizations, think tanks, NGOs, and professionals from the public and private sectors. Grants will be offered for degrees in the following fields:

Business – MBA in Human Resource Management / International Business / Operations Management / Healthcare Administration

Core Sciences: Biology/ Chemistry/ Physics / Pharmacy

Economics – International Economics / Trade and Finance / Policy / Environmental / Natural Resources Economics

Education – All aspects of Higher Education Administration / Education Policy, Planning & Management / Curriculum and Instructions

Environmental Studies & Disaster Management

Fashion and Textile Design

Public Administration / Public Policy

Psychology – Clinical / Counseling

Security Studies

Social Sciences & Humanities: Political Science / Sociology / History / Literature

Urban Planning: General Planning / Land Use and Environmental Planning / Transportation Systems / Urban / Community Development

Fulbright grant provisions include: round-trip airfare, tuition and related academic fees, a monthly stipend for room, board, and incidental expenses, a book allowance, health and accident insurance, travel allowance, and excess baggage allowance. The program is extremely selective—in previous years, about seven to eight grants have been made after hundreds of applications were received and reviewed.

To be eligible, candidates must:

- Have at least a four-year bachelor's degree, with an outstanding academic record;
- Not have a degree from a U.S. university, or be enrolled in a current degree program;
- Not hold a master's degree from any third country (those holding Bangladeshi master's degrees are eligible);
- Have at least two years full-time professional experience relevant to proposed field of study;
- Have a minimum iBT TOEFL score of 80 / IELTS 7.0;
- Be fluent in English;

- Be in good health;
- Be Bangladeshi citizens residing in Bangladesh at the time of application;
- Be willing to refund the cost of a return ticket if they return home before completion of the degree.

Applicants are requested to submit the online application by Thursday, May 31, 2018. Detailed instructions to fill out the online application form and a link to the online application site are available at:

<https://bd.usembassy.gov/education-culture/student-exchange-programs/>. Prospective candidates are highly encouraged to read application instructions thoroughly before filling out the application form.

Candidates may access the online application directly at: <https://iie.embark.com/apply/ffsp>.

Following supplemental forms must be uploaded and submitted through the embark online application by Thursday, May 31, 2018:

1. Academic Transcripts and Certificates from each post-secondary institution (Bachelor's and Master's)
2. Three Letters of Reference submitted by the referees directly to the online application
(Prospective candidates must register his / her referees through the "Recommender Registration" button available on the embark online application site)
3. Academic Records Information Form (available on the embark home page)
4. Signature Form (available on the embark home page)
5. TOEFL / IELTS score

A competitive GRE or GMAT score is also required for admission to a master's program in the U.S. If applicants already have such a score, those scores should be uploaded with the online application. If not available, the American Center can arrange testing for preliminarily selected candidates only. Prospective candidates must prepare well in advance for standardized tests (TOEFL/GRE/GMAT) since a competitive score is crucial for admission.

Applicants are encouraged to contact Ms. Shaheen Khan, Cultural Affairs Specialist at the American Center, at KhanSA@state.gov if they have any questions regarding the application procedures.

We look forward to receiving applications from exceptional candidates.

Sincerely,

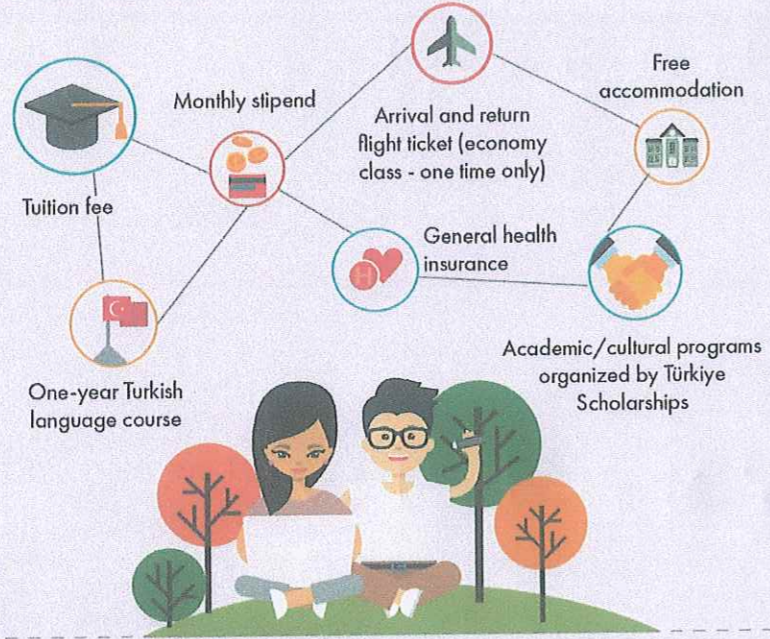

Kelly Ryan
Cultural Affairs Officer
